First Presbyterian Church
Concord, NH

Mission: To be a Bible-believing church seeking to educate a family of believers by proclaiming the good news of Jesus Christ through prayer, study, and fellowship

Summary: First Presbyterian Church began worshipping in September of 1996 in the cafeteria of Concord High School. In May of 2007, the congregation moved Sunday morning worship services to the Concord Community Music School. The congregation, desiring to have greater visibility, moved to a new facility in April of 2009 which is just off I-93 on Loudon Road. Concord is the capital of New Hampshire and located in the middle of the state, north of Nashua and Manchester on I-93. A full range of opportunities exist for spiritual growth through men's and women's ministries, Sunday School for children, youth, and teenagers, God-Centered worship and expositional Bible teaching.
